

RENOVATED ALGARVIAN STYLE FARMHOUSE

This traditional Algarvian style farmhouse once belonged to the well-known Portuguese poet, António Aleixo. Totally renovated to include modern comforts whilst maintaining the beautiful traditional features throughout. Nestling in a peaceful location with a south facing outlook on the original footprint, this charming home comprises on the first level, a spacious en-suite bedroom and 2 bedrooms sharing a bathroom. On the same floor the social areas are divided by the living and dining room, next to the traditional style kitchen, which leads directly to a romantic covered terrace overlooking the swimming pool. There is also a cosy family room with a fireplace for those snug wintery nights and across the hallway there is a large games room/gym with a double high ceiling in wood, connecting to a Sauna and shower room. The first floor is designed to taking advantage of the vast country views, so the master bedroom en-suite benefits from a large terrace overlooking the manicured gardens and swimming pool across the country towards the coastline. The property also includes a laundry room, two storage areas and a cloak room on the ground floor, in addition to a carport at the kitchen entrance. Surrounded by 3616sqm of beautifully landscaped gardens, designed to be low maintenance ...
