CHARMING CLASSICAL TRANQUILITY

Nestled on park like landscaped garden with mature trees and beautifully maintained lawned area, this very private and completely walled/fenced property is located between Vale do Lobo and Quinta do Lago. The villa boasts traditional features throughout including an imposing dual high entrance hall with spiral staircase. The fully fitted and equipped kitchen, open concept dining room and lounge with fireplace, create a warm and cozy atmosphere throughout. From the lounge there is an additional snug room which can also be used as an office area or play room. Overlooking the swimming pool and lush gardens are extensive covered terraces with glass doors to enjoy all year round. The ground floor bedrooms with built in wardrobes share a large family bathroom. The first floor benefits from three spacious en-suite bedrooms, all with built in wardrobes and private terraces to enjoy sunshine whilst overlooking lovely grounds. The property also has a borehole, air conditioning and radiator heating throughout. If you are searching for a substantial property with character, in a location where peace and tranquility are a valuable priority, central to the beach and golf resorts, this property is definitely not one to be missed.
