SOUTH FACING VILLA

Upon arrival, entering through the large wooden double doors you are met by the light and bright double height ceiling and natural stone floor giving warmth throughout the property. To the right of the entrance is the large modern kitchen with a central island, breakfast bar and direct access to outdoor terrace and into the formal dining room. In the center of this symmetrically designed villa, is the split level formal lounge with focus on an impressive stone fireplace and two large patio doors accessing a covered seating area that overlooks pool and landscaped garden. Ground floor is completed with two large guest suites and a cloakroom. The modern galleried staircase bathed in light from the many windows is crowned by a striking chandelier which sets the tone for this magnificent property. The first floor level is where you will find the third suite and as with all areas of this villa windows provide an abundance of light and lead to a private balcony set back from the master suite to ensure the masters privacy. The master suite in excess of 65m2 is a true masterpiece with built in wardrobes, separate dressing room, large bathroom and access to two private south facing terraces. On the lower level there is double garage, utility room and sitting area with patio doors to outside staircase that leads to pool terrace. Also on...
